BACKGROUND

ABOUT

Instructional Software Developer at Coding House in San Francisco. I'm interested in leveraging technology to change lives at scale.

WORK EXPERIENCE

• Instructional Software Developer, Coding House

Feb, 2016 - Present ⌚ 3 months

Helping the team at Coding House transform lives

- Curation and delivery of instructional content and resources
- Create internal tools for Coding House students and staff
- Lead community outreach and corporate partnership development

English Teacher, AEON Corporation, Japan

Jun, 2012 - Jun, 2015 ⌚ 2 years 11 months

Taught English to adult Japanese students. Helped my students set and reach their goals of studying abroad, changing their jobs, getting promoted, making new friends, and traveling. Taught me to take risks and get out of my comfort zone. I also learned a fair amount of Japanese!

- Changed people's lives

- Learned how to communicate with someone who doesn't speak my language or share the same cultural background as me
- Climbed Mt. Fuji

---

Project Manager, Blaine Tech Services, Inc

Jan, 2010 - Jun, 2012 ⌚ 2 years 5 months

Coordinated groundwater monitoring efforts at ~250 sites/quarter throughout California and Washington. Supervised the day-to-day operations of multiple remote technicians. Ensured cost-effective and error-free implementation of complex project directives from clients.

- Managed the company's largest client portfolio despite being one of the youngest project managers
- Learned organization, time management and attention to detail in the context of managerial responsibilities

Environmental Sampling Technician, Blaine Tech Services, Inc

Oct, 2007 - Jan, 2010 ⌚ 2 years 3 months

Conducted groundwater monitoring at sites in California and Washington. Implemented complex project scopes with little to no supervision

- Regularly tapped by management to lead new and/or challenging projects
- Learned the importance of communication, self-sufficiency and professionalism in the workplace
